Our province's environmental leaders find out if they made the Emerald Awards shortlist this Friday

Edmonton, AB: Alberta is an industry leader in environmental innovation. For almost three decades, the Emerald Awards have been showcasing projects and organizations who have raised the bar, in turn inspiring us to work collaboratively towards a greener province.

This Friday, applicants across all sectors will find out if they're one step closer to becoming an Emerald recipient at the 29th Annual Emerald Awards Shortlist Announcement, presented by Alberta Recycling Management Authority. In lieu of a public event, a special video will be released the morning of Friday, March 27, 2020. The recipients will be named at the 29th Annual Emerald Awards on June 2, 2020 at a special live-streamed ceremony complete with presenters, artists, sponsors, and of course, all the finalists. The extraordinary work of Emerald Award recipients is showcased year-round through the Emerald Documentary Series, newly-launched "What On EARTH Can We Do?" podcast, and more.

The Alberta Emerald Foundation, our province's environmental good-news storytellers, invites media to share the experience of this special public announcement. Interview opportunities are available.
